Organizational session for 1992

ELECTIONS AND NOMINATIONS

Election of 11 members of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In resolution 46/22, the General Assembly decided, subject to the concurrence of the Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1/ that the membership of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes should be increased from 30 to 42 by the addition of 12 States Members of the United Nations or States members of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, and that the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations should elect six additional members each. 2/

2. The Assembly also decided, taking into account the membership criteria laid down in General Assembly resolution 3404 (XXX), that the enlarged Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes should comprise 27 members from developing countries and 15 from more economically developed countries, to be elected from the States listed in appendix A to the report of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes on the work of its first special session (E/1991/69) and in accordance with the following distribution of seats:

(a) Eleven members from the States included in list A of appendix A, five members to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and six by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations;

(b) Nine members from the States included in list B of appendix A, four members to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and five by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations; 3/

(c) Seven members from the States included in list C of appendix A, four members to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and three by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations;

(d) Thirteen members from the States included in list D of appendix A, seven members to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and six by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations;

(e) Two members from the States included in list E of appendix A, one member to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and one by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.

3. In the same resolution, the Assembly requested the Economic and Social Council, at its organizational session for 1992, to elect six additional members of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes in accordance with the following distribution and terms of office:

(a) Two members from the States included in list A of appendix A, one member for a term of three years and one for a term of one year;

(b) Two members from the States included in list B of appendix A, one member for a term of three years and one for a term of two years;

(c) Two members from the States included in list C of appendix A, one member for a term of two years and one for a term of one year.

The General Assembly also requested that, thereafter, the Economic and Social Council elect, for a term of three years, all members of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes for whose election it was responsible.

4. In addition, at the resumed organizational session for 1992 (29 and 30 April) the Council will be called upon to elect five members of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes, for a three-year term beginning on 1 January 1993, to fill the vacancies created by the expiration on 31 December 1992 of the terms of the following members: Finland, Hungary, India, Italy and the Sudan.

5. The existing membership of the Committee in 1992 is given in annex I to the present document. Appendix A to the report of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes on the work of its first special session (E/1991/69) is reproduced in annex II.

Notes

1/ See resolution 9/91, adopted by the Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations on 26 November 1991.

2/ At its 101st session (Rome, 29 November 1991), the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations elected the following six additional members: Argentina, Burkina Faso, Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Romania, Saudi Arabia and Sri Lanka; it also elected the following five States to fill vacancies occurring on 31 December 1991: Angola, Cameroon, France, Germany and Mexico.

Notes (continued)

3/ For this purpose, the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations will each elect one member from Group I and three members from Group II. In addition, the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations will elect one other member in rotation, alternating between Groups I and II.
